HIGHLIGHTS

Today we are watching more video content than ever through countless media platforms. In the middle of the vast sea of content, I believe it is right time to recall the true value of 'TV drama' and what it has meant to us. In my view, despite the fact that it is a fictional creation based on imagination and performances, TV drama has been a mirror that helps us not only reflect key moments of our life, but also empathize each other who lives in the same era.

Expanding to the international level, TV drama produced in each culture can also be a great communication channel for understanding each other. This is exactly what we aim to achieve by hosting the Seoul International Drama Awards.

Since its launch in 2006, the Seoul International Drama Awards has a cumulative number of 2,578 entries from 77 countries around the world during the past 13 years. Each year, TV dramas from more than 50 countries compete and communicate with each other whilst sharing the joy of winning and achievement.

I am more than delighted to present the highlights of the Seoul International Drama Awards 2018 through this photo book helping to recall the unforgettable moments of the Awards night. Most importantly, I would like to show my sincere gratefulness to all of you who supported the Awards and made this special event possible. We look forward to seeing you again in next year's event.

Thank you.

54 Hours
[90min. X 2] / Beta Film
GmbH / Germany

On a hot summer's day in Gladbeck, Germany in 1988, an armed bank robbery goes awry. The robbery is soon recognized among the pedestrians, and their act is reported to the police. However, due to their reckless approach the robbers notice their move and develop this situation to a hostage situation. While fleeing from the police, the two gangsters take an entire busload hostage. The ensuing manhunt, however, turns into a disaster. The police make fools of themselves with their amateurish operations and, above all, are obstructed by the nation's media who swoop down on the events in their rat race for the juiciest pictures and live interviews with the kidnappers. Thus begins an odyssey that goes completely out of control.

Black Mirror S4 - Crocodile
[60min. X 6] / Netflix / U.K.

Filmed in Iceland, the episode centers on Mia (Andrea Riseborough) who is distressed about having helped her friend Rob (Andrew Gower) cover up a hit-and-run death. Fifteen years go by Mia secures a successful career, and is a mother of a child. On the other hand, the pricks of conscience has been putting Rob in pain. Rob decides to confess their crime which leads Mia and Rob to a confrontation and leads Mia to kill him and dispose of his body. Shortly after, Mia witnesses a road accident between a pedestrian and self-driving vehicle. Shazia (Kiran Sonia Sawar) meanwhile is hired to investigate the accident, and uses a Recaller device that allows her to see the recent memories of those she interviews.

A Dance to Remembrance

Hartmut fights against his wife's Alzheimer's with every fibre of his being. He's ready to defy the odds and play his most unexpected card. As Erika comes back to her senses when listening to 'Daddy Cool' one of the biggest hits in the 70's, Hartmut sees Erika back in her youth, happy and lively again. That's when he decides to bring their flat back into the seventies. He wears a wig similar to his old hair style, and wears old familiar clothing. This idea divides opinions and brings old family secrets back to light. But it's a risk he is ready to take to hold the true love of his life in his arms once more.

Kurara : The Dazzling Life of Hokusai's Daughter
[73min. X 1] / NHK / Japan

The act of painting was always kurara to O-Ei, the daughter of the Edo period master painter Katsushika Hokusai, one of the most famous painters in Japanese history. Since her childhood, she was captivated by painting. O-Ei marries a town painter, but she soon chooses art over marriage and divorces him. Once she returns to the family home, she begins assisting her father. O-Ei is by his side as he completes his iconic 'Thirty-six Views of Mount Fuji' series. When Hokusai grew too old to wield his brush freely, O-Ei becomes his 'brush' and paints on his behalf. It's during this time that she starts to grow a strong fascination with colors as she finally develops her own painting style.

Private Banking
[90min. X 2] / Beta Film
GmbH / Switzerland

Zurich, capital of high finance. The patron of a small Swiss private bank is ill and falls into coma. His daughter Caroline with no clue about the banking business must take over the management of the bank from one day to the other. Hesitant at first, she steps in upon learning that her step-brother has already arranged for its sale against her father's will. It turns out that the bank is built upon corrupt south Africa connections and the daughter tries to turn the bank into a legitimate business. As ever new discrepancies and shady dealings come to light, Caroline unearths some dark family secrets and is forced to make major decisions.

Legal Mavericks

[45min. X 28] / TVB / Hong Kong

Legal Mavericks is not your regular procedural drama. A blind barrister with unusual perceptive powers, a private investigator who uses unorthodox methods, a female legal assistant with ties to the mob, and a female judge not afraid to challenge the legal system. The only thing they do whatever it takes in the name of justice. Featuring controversial cases that mostly concern the underprivileged such as the physically and mentally disabled, trans-gender people, and terminally ill patients who seek euthanasia, the show sees how the four main characters do what they can to protect the rights of these people by upholding law.

Lion Mums S2

[60min. X 30] / Ochre Pictures Pte Ltd / Singapore

Lion Mums Season 2 is a cosmo-drama series that centers around the lives of four quintessential Singaporean mothers. In Season One, our Lion Mums had to navigate the minefield of primary school admission, amidst challenging personal life circumstances. Season Two finds our intrepid Lion Mums confronting the challenge of Singapore's highly competitive education head – on as their offspring begin their first year of primary education at the fictional elite school, Charleston Primary. The show will explore hot button and highly relatable topics that seem to have been ripped from the headlines. Our Lion Mums will have to deal with Enrichment Programs, gaming the Direct Schools Admission system, homework tutors, elitism in the education system, bullying and of course, the perennial pressures of competitive parenting.

Nothing Personal

[60min. X 80] / TV Azteca / Mexico

Two young journalists have unearthed classified information confirming that Mexico's Attorney General, Raúl Rey, and the Commissioner of the US Special Task Force on Organized Crime, Ronald Topp, are involved in money laundering. There are photos of them with known drug lords and documents to suggest they have financed their respective political campaigns with drug money. The journalists are at the apartment of one of their girlfriends when a task force barges in and murders them along with the girl. It is a spur-of-the-moment operation, executed effectively but not entirely efficiently. The men clean up after themselves but aren't aware there is another girl living in the apartment – Mariana Aragón, who listens in silence from the shower as her friends are massacred.

The New Black
[30min. X 12] / Dori Media Group Ltd / Israel

They live and study in the most prestigious orthodox yeshiva and have lost interest in studies long ago but do not have the courage to leave. Thus, when all those around them think they are studying hard, non-stop, Meir Avinoam, Gedaliah and Dov have a new agenda. They live the dream – on the one hand, they enjoy the benefits of the prestigious yeshiva student status in the orthodox society, and on the other hand - enjoy the pleasures of modern life. A new supervisor arrives and decides to end the gang's hedonism life.

Fight for My Way
[70min. X 16] / KBS / South Korea

“No matter what anyone says we will go on our own way!” They choose not to do what everyone else does and do things their own way. Follow the story about underdogs with big dreams and third-rate specs just struggling to survive, and craving for success for the career they're under-qualified for. The long time friendship blossoms into romance between two immature friends Ko Dong-man and Choi Ae-ra whose childish dynamic hasn't changed despite reaching adulthood.

Welcome to the Family
[50min. X 13] / Filmax / Spain

Welcome To The Family takes a comical look at the institution of family, showing courageous mothers, adopted children and dim-witted widows embarking on the journey of life together; a journey which will lead them to form indestructible emotional bonds. Starring Melani Olivares as Angela, a courageous single mom, who's struggling to keep her family's head above water and provide for her three kids. To complicate matters even further, Angela also shares her home with her brother-in-law. This fractured family is the starting point of the new comedy. Because whatever the kind of family, we should never forget the three musketeers' motto: All for one and one for all.

Zarah – Wild Times
[45min. X 6] / ZDF Enterprises / Germany

Zarah-Wild Times tells the story of an ambitious journalist and her part in the women's liberation movement of the early 1970's, as she battles the entrenched patriarchy of a popular weekly magazine. It is a time when uncharted waters are being tested in fashion, pop culture, sex and politics. Germany is hip and with it, but the positions of power in politics, business and the media are still almost exclusively held by men.

Jury's Special Prize

The Memoir of Majie
[45min. X 30] / Natseven TV Sdn Bhd / Malaysia

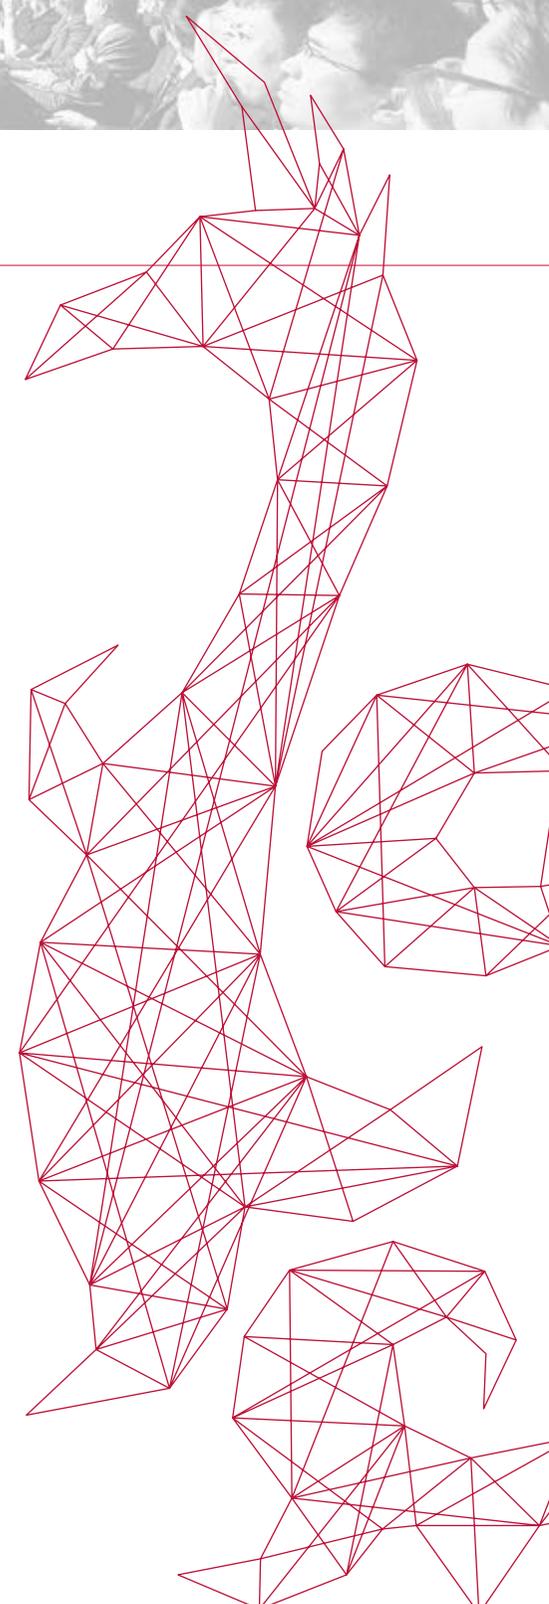

In 1957, this drama revolves around four women from China's Shunde district in 1957. Due to various reasons such as disappointment and fear towards marriage, they have decided to become a 'Majie' (domestic servant) and vow never to get married. Through this drama, viewers will be able to understand more about the role of a majie and how their thoughts and values differ from other women. Following the journey of these strong-willed women will shock you in many ways.

The Most Popular Foreign Drama of the Year

Solitary Gourmet
[50min. X 12] / TV Tokyo / Japan

The drama adaptation of Kusumi Masayuki and Taniguchi Jiro's gourmet manga "Kodoku no Gourmet." The story follows a man named Inogashira Goro (played by Yutaka Matsushige), who privately runs an imported dry goods business. In his spare time between work, he visits various shops and tastes their cuisine. One of the highlights of the manga is that the shops that appear in it are all real shops geared towards a general public. The drama will preserve the spirit of the manga, in which the solitary protagonist speaks very little and the focus is on his character as he eats various dishes.

HISTORY 2006-2018

Since its launch in 2006, the annual Seoul International Drama Awards has been produced and telecast live by three terrestrial broadcasters – KBS, MBC and SBS – interchangeably. The award shows have taken place at various venues including the KBS Hall, National Theater of Korea, Olympic Hall and the Sangam Culture Plaza during the past 13 years.

Among the 2,578 dramas submitted from 77 countries cumulatively, Ghana has joined the Seoul International Drama Awards (SDA) for the first time. Countries including South Korea, China, Japan, Israel, Spain, France, Germany, U.S.A and the U.K. have won the Grand Prize at the SDA.
